22 October 2008

Dear Mr Benedikt,

Urban Age South America Conference, São Paulo, Brazil, 3-5 December 2008

On behalf of the London School of Economics and Deutsche Bank's Alfred Herrhausen Society, we invite you to participate in the Urban Age South America Conference on 3-5 December in São Paulo. Urban Age brings city leaders together with renowned academics and practitioners to share experiences with projects and policies that improve our cities.

The Urban Age South America Conference continues our work to establish a new urban agenda for global cities. Our investigation into Bogotá, Rio de Janeiro, Lima, Buenos Aires and São Paulo on the politics of mobility, inequality and the regeneration of cities will be presented at the conference together with international case studies of best practice in these areas.

We will be posting the full programme on-line in the next few weeks but hope that you will consider registering for the event by returning the attached form by 30 October 2008. Registration is free and participants are invited to take part in all social events. More information on the Urban Age can be found at www.urbanage.net.

Your participation would greatly enrich the Urban Age network and we hope you will join us in São Paulo.

Yours sincerely,
